Subject: Deliverables check-in in lieu of today's formaldehyde meeting

Hello all,

I have canceled today's meeting, as we did not have a specific topic ready for discussion.

In lieu of today's meeting, can everyone please send me an update of where you are with your section(s), when you expect to complete it/ them, and what (if anything) you are waiting on before you can complete it/ them. Also, if there are any issues or problems you have encountered that could use a wider team discussion, please let me know.

I will compare your timeline with the schedule we previously discussed, and follow up with you as necessary. Please remember that we intend to have team discussions on each of the hazard calls starting in mid-October, so your section(s) should be finalized enough to lead the discussion(s) on your section(s).

Happy no-meeting Wednesday afternoon,
Andrew
